

After more than 65 Years as a licenses radio amateur, I have come to the conclusion that CW has become totally obsolete insofar as a requirement for licensing is concerned. I suggest that CW operation be 'allowed' but not required, for any type of amateur radio license.

I also suggest that all "CW Sub-bands" be cancelled, and that the United States join the rest of the world in allowing any type of emission on all amateur frequencies.